

Resound Network Church Health Assessment

	Strongly Disagree	Moderately Disagree	Slightly Disagree	Slightly Agree	Moderately Agree	Strongly Agree
Healthy Identities - Worshipers
1. I am passionate about growing in holiness and love for Jesus.
2. I anticipate and prepare for experiencing God in our weekly worship gatherings.
3. I spend time throughout the week in personal Bible study, prayer, and devotion.
4. Talking about Jesus is a normal part of my daily conversation.
5. We see the weekly gathering as primarily for the building up of the church.
6. We enjoy well-planned worship services that lead us to actively worship God through a variety of elements (confession, prayer, Scripture, song, etc.).
7. We sing songs that are biblically sound and inspire us to joyfully adore God.
8. Our worship services glorify God, acknowledge Jesus as Lord, and allow us to passionately express our love for him.
Healthy Identities - Family
1. I am convinced that I need the church and the church needs me.
2. I pursue those within our church who are difficult to love.
3. I address sin and conflict with one another personally in a way that is biblical, aiming for reconciliation and forgiveness.
4. We enjoy spending time together inside and outside of the church building.
5. We share our personal challenges with one another.
6. We enjoy finding ways to serve, encourage, and build one another up.
7. We have a plan for making sure new members become fully connected with the whole church.
8. We cultivate an environment of belonging, demonstrating grace, acceptance, support, and mutual encouragement.
Healthy Identities - Missionaries
1. I strongly believe that every believer is called to make disciples.
2. I intentionally develop relationships with lost people.
3. We generously give in order to take the Gospel to the nations.
4. We believe our church was planted in our current location to display God's glory and communicate the gospel to every person.
5. We would love to partner with others in starting new churches.
6. We regularly provide missions education for all age groups.
7. We have a good relationship with our neighborhood and community leaders.
8. We actively include people from our community, inviting them to come to our gatherings and connect at deeper levels with us.

	Strongly Disagree	Moderately Disagree	Slightly Disagree	Slightly Agree	Moderately Agree	Strongly Agree
Healthy Foundations - Gospel
1. I know how to explain the Gospel to a lost person.
2. I am comfortable sharing my faith with unbelievers.
3. I regularly share my faith with unbelievers.
4. I build my life and work in the church on the gospel of Jesus Christ and relate to others based upon the Gospel.
5. We gather to remember, rejoice in, and realign our lives with the truth of the Gospel.
6. We find our hope for personal and church health in the Gospel rather than programs and traditions.
7. We believe the good news of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection is the only hope for humanity.
8. We hear the gospel referenced and emphasized in the sermons preached in our church.
Healthy Foundations - Scripture
1. I meditate on, memorize, and apply God's word in my life regularly.
2. I am willing to give up my personal desires or preferences to do what the Scripture teaches.
3. We develop our beliefs and biblical convictions according to Scripture.
4. We enjoy reading and studying God's Word individually, in groups, and corporately.
5. We determine our church practices based upon Scripture, not tradition or effectiveness.
6. We cherish the Bible as God's authoritative Word to us.
7. We focus on the Bible in our teaching and preaching ministries because we believe it is foundational to the life of our congregation.
8. We are taught how to study & interpret the Bible by our pastors and teachers.
Healthy Foundations - Prayer
1. I pray consistently and persistently for the salvation of lost people by name.
2. We see people praying for one another when we gather.
3. We long to pour out our hearts to God through prayer that He might accomplish His purposes for our church.
4. We begin and saturate any planning with prayer.
5. We specifically pray for lost people among the nations of the world.
6. We have a system in place to quickly transmit prayer requests to our church.
7. We often hear people talk about God's activity in their life related to prayer.
8. We are taught how to effectively pray in our daily lives.

	Strongly Disagree	Moderately Disagree	Slightly Disagree	Slightly Agree	Moderately Agree	Strongly Agree
Healthy Structure - Leadership
1. We have leaders who remind us of Jesus.
2. We have a clear, intentional pathway to develop future pastors, and lay leaders.
3. We have deacons who care for the unity and physical needs of the church.
4. We benefit from the sound preaching and soul care of our pastors.
5. We empower our leaders to make decisions to accomplish the vision and mission of the church.
6. We encourage and care for all our leaders serving in our church.
7. We know and support the vision for our church, which has been clearly given by our leaders.
8. We understand how our individual roles help accomplish the church's vision.
Healthy Structure - Membership
1. I joyfully submit to pastoral leadership that follows Jesus.
2. I actively contribute my time, talent, and treasure (money and other material gifts) to the life and mission of the church.
3. I know and use my spiritual gifts and natural talents for the good of the congregation, not my own benefit.
4. We regularly see and know those on our member rolls.
5. We believe in and practice biblical church discipline.
6. We know and wholeheartedly practice our church covenant.
7. We have a new members class to help educate and assimilate newcomers.
8. We value and consider faithful attendance and service normal behavior for every church member.
Healthy Structure - Discipleship
1. I personally invest in those younger in the faith.
2. We have a clear process to help a person grow from new believer to maturity.
3. We effectively equip parents to disciple their children.
4. We see people know, love, and obey Jesus more as a result of our discipleship strategy.
5. We continually challenge and equip people to take the next step in the discipleship process.
6. We have an established and effective outreach strategy built around the current demographics and needs of our local community.
7. We strongly believe every member should be in a small group that focuses on discipleship and Christian living.
8. We emphasize the practical application of the Scripture, teaching that faith and obedience to the commands of Jesus are marks of a disciple.						